Dear Desiree and Ben,

My name is James Curtin. I am a federal whistleblower in a matter concerning a defence contracting issue and related litigation involving Cyberlux Corporation and other parties.

Recently, through a Freedom of Information request to one of the defendants in that matter, I obtained a set of emails showing communications between Chuck Watts, a defendant in my case and the former City Attorney of Greensboro, North Carolina, and an individual identifying himself as Bruce McDougall using the email address bruce.mcdougall@linde.com.

Because the sender used a Linde email domain, I wanted to bring this to your attention and ask whether you can confirm whether this individual is, or was at the relevant time, affiliated with Linde.

For reference, I have attached screenshots of the emails obtained through the FOIA response, along with a screenshot of one of several posts from a Twitter/X account bearing the name @brucemdou67575, which appears to be connected to the same individual.

The communications relate to online activity directed toward me in connection with the whistleblower matter. The underlying issues are currently the subject of inquiries involving the U.S. Department of Defence and the General Services Administration, and there is also an ongoing civil action related to online harassment and doxing directed at me and members of my family.

I am not making any assumptions about the individual's relationship to your company. My purpose in writing is simply to verify whether the name and email address correspond to a Linde employee or contractor.

Thank you for your time and assistance.

Sincerely,

James Curtin

Hi Chuck. You are constantly being slandered on Twitter by “Jackson Holt” a stock manipulator. The website is set up to deceive and owned by an American. Maybe you can get a cease and desist, it’s horrendous

Hi Chuck. There is a guy on twitter “Jackson holt” who impersonates as a reporter and slanders you and many others to manipulate stock. Maybe you can get a C and D. It’s a huge scam he is involved in. The website he has is a lie, btw, he is here in the USA. Sorry to bother you but it’s outrageous

You’re blatantly fucking with the wrong people. I’m sensing, beyond your personality disorders perhaps bipolar mania. You can see it in the thread over time. Maybe time for self reflection.
