Attempting at times to be a purveyor of truth and justice, hiding behind the guise ensuring American tax dollars are being used wisely. From their “Who Am I, and Why Should You Care?” section.

I'm Jackson Holt—a writer, investigator, and storyteller shaped by a lifelong curiosity about the truths that define our world. Raised in a family where stories and secrets were part of everyday life, I learned to ask questions, challenge assumptions, and pay attention to the spaces in between. A Jesuit education sharpened that instinct, training me to think critically, embrace complexity, and recognize patterns that others overlook.

Much of my career has been spent examining how events unfold, how decisions are made, and how unseen forces shape outcomes. From political shifts to cultural movements, I've worked to break down the mechanics of influence, power, and the quiet negotiations that often go unnoticed.

Now based in Mallorca, I continue to explore these themes through journalism, essays, and fiction. This site is where my work lives. It's not about easy answers or neatly packaged takes but about looking deeper, connecting ideas, and sometimes using fiction to explore what facts alone cannot.

Whether through reporting or storytelling, my goal remains the same: to provoke thought, evoke feeling, and uncover the unseen.

Who is James "Jim" Curtin and where does he fit within this campaign?

James "Jim" Curtin

James "Jim" Curtin very likely operates the anonymous "Jackson Holt" online personality, judging by his company's role in selling Holt's book, archived details of Holt's identity, and Curtin's email and phone numbers probably serving as recovery contacts for at least two of Holt's email addresses. Curtin likely established the Holt persona in April 2022, based on an archived post to the jacksonholt[.]com website and associated Instagram and Facebook accounts, but did not begin posting defamatory messages against Cyberlux until possibly late 2024 despite claims that those messages began in 2023, based on a review of archived website activity.<sup>4</sup>

Jim Curtin

- Holt's website featured a "Cyberlux Disclaimer" dated 21 March 2023, however an archived version of the site from 26 March 2023 shows the site's primary focus at that time reflected Holt's background as a self described "arms dealer" and reflections of Holt's travel experiences. Investigators found no mentions of Cyberlux in archived posts from that time.<sup>5</sup>

Curtin likely resides in Pittsford, New York, but also spends time in Alexandria, Virginia, judging by his voter registration, residential addresses, and social media activity.<sup>6,7,8</sup> He currently works as an advisor in the defense industry, with a career spanning in related fields since the mid-1990s. Curtin is likely divorced, with two grown children, and a probable grandson, judging by social media content.<sup>9,10</sup>

Carotank Road LLC

Jackson Holt authored two books— The Offer and The Broker’s Secret An Origin Story—which are both sold by Carotank Road LLC, a company founded by and registered to Curtin.

1 13 305

RacketeerX @RacketeerX · May 27

Curtin registered Carotank Road LLC in Virginia in 2017 and is the sole company officer, according to the Virginia business registry. Carotank is not a listed seller for any additional books on the Apple Books website, suggesting a strong association with Jackson Holt.

Curtin registered Carotank Road LLC in Virginia in 2017 and is the sole company officer, according to the Virginia business registry. Carotank is not a listed seller for any additional books on the Apple Books website, suggesting a strong association with Jackson Holt.

1 11 290

RacketeerX @RacketeerX · May 27

Curtin registered Carotank Road on 20 June 2017 in his name and used his residential address—as the company’s principal office. Curtin also maintains Carotank Road Holdings Inc, a stock corporation with 25,000 total shares.

1 10 279

RacketeerX @RacketeerX · May 27

Although inactive as of January 2025, Curtin filed to reactivate the corporation on 22 March 2025, according to corporate filings in Virginia.

Those published books including the publisher link can be found here:

1 11 271

RacketeerX @RacketeerX · May 27

The evidence doesn't end with being involved with Carotank Road Holdings Inc however. It seems there are more credible ties that move the needle beyond just being a highly coincidental Seller.

When doing a forensic deep dive into the accounts, 3rd party investigators were able to establish unique identifiers that were possibly used as backup accounts for Jackson Holt's email addresses including phone numbers and email backup accounts.

Selector Attribution

Investigators identified three selectors (two phone numbers and one email address) linked to Jim Curtin that were possibly used as backup accounts for Jackson Holt's email addresses. The three selectors contained elements that matched the backup clues linked to social media and subscription accounts, based on proprietary data.

In the post he echoed the sentiments spread through months of @thejacksonholt writings.

Jim C. · 2nd

Some time ago, I became aware of what I believed to be significant misuse of taxpayer funds within the Foreign Military Sales (FMS) system by a US company.

I made formal disclosures to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the GSA and have cooperated—quietly and professionally—with the appropriate authorities.

Since then, I've been targeted with retaliation: defamation, slander, and false accusations by individuals now facing the consequences of their own actions. That's fine. I expected it.

This post isn't a defense. It's a reminder.

Accountability matters. Even when it's inconvenient.

If you work in this space and have ever been pressured to stay quiet, to look away, or to let it slide—know this: you're not alone, and you're not powerless.

Jim Curtin, president of @wbgroupamerica, you are not a journalist. You are a fraud. You are only attacking Cyberlux because you lost out on Datron and have never accomplished anything close to what Cyberlux is building.

Late afternoon, mere hours after the possible coordinated attack on @CyberluxC @billmaadar60848 @MDSAdvisor were revealed, Jim Curtin made a post on his LinkedIn page. linkedin.com/in/jimcurtin

In the post he echoed the sentiments spread through months of @thejacksonholt writings.

Why would Jim Curtin @wbgroupamerica possibly go through the trouble of such a targeted attack on @CyberluxC @MDSAdvisor and @BillMaadar60848

Was this a revenge tactic as a result of not being hired by Datron and for Cyberlux acquiring Datron? x.com/RacketeerX/sta...

@jacksonholt it saddens me that your deception has backfired that exposed you. I hope enforcement has a budget to handle thousands of complaints such as yours. Hire a lawyer to issue c&d orders from the judicial system. 😞 Bullish

@jacksonholt @Tigershark57 I am not being paid by anyone to pump this at all. And I am most certainly not pumping it at all. Just stating my beliefs. I got into this when it was still in CE and happen to believe it is a good, albeit extremely high risk, lottery play type of investment. The products are there, the contracts are there, management just needs to learn to get out of their own way.

Jim Curtin thinks I'm some some sort of paid assassin for cybl 🤔🤔🤔

Your lack of investigatory journalism is showing Jim. I'm just an ordinary dude with 3 million shares that doesn't like the fact that you have a vendetta against the company and are trying to hide your ulterior motives behind a fake persona on x and your AI written articles.

I also don't believe that you were threatened on WhatsApp, otherwise you would have posted it for everyone to see.

Truth of the matter is you have been exposed and you are going down and to jail eventually.

Trying to influence courts, going after public servants and manipulating markets through a conspiracy is absolutely a crime, and deeply immoral.

“RacketeerX” on X has a pretty good deep dive into to whole JH scam and will likely have more soon.

Writing about \$CYBL's public records isn't a crime.

But hysterically ranting about “conspiracies” while being part of a coordinated effort to promote a stock?

That’s not irony. That’s hypocrisy.
