DECLARATION OF WILLIAM WELTER

I, William Welter, declare and state as follows:

1. I am the Managing Director of Atlantic Wave Holdings, LLC ("Atlantic Wave") and Secure Community, LLC ("Secure Community") (collectively, "Plaintiffs"). I have personal knowledge of the matters stated herein and, if called upon as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

2. The judgment at issue stems from a consent judgment entered by a Virginia Court, which Defendants Cyberlux Corporation and Mark D. Schmidt ("Defendants") willingly agreed to and signed off on, indicating their explicit agreement to its terms.

3. Defendants have defaulted on their payment and disclosure obligations under the parties' agreement by making late payments and refusing to provide information about drone sales, despite multiple requests from Plaintiffs before filing suit, leading to the domestication of the Virginia judgment in California to enforce the debt owed. The collection action was initiated in California because Cyberlux's subsidiary, and to our knowledge, its only tangible asset, Datron World Communications, is located in Vista, California.

4. Plaintiffs' attempted to correct the initial filing error, but Defendants refused to stipulate to the dismissal of the incorrectly filed complaint. Instead, Defendants removed the case to federal court and filed counterclaims.

5. Plaintiffs also initiated proceedings in Virginia to garnish Defendants' bank accounts in a parallel attempt to collect on the judgment. After moving to dismiss the incorrectly filed complaint and domesticating the Virginia judgment in California, Plaintiffs learned that their Virginia garnishment efforts were effective in segregating funds held in Defendants' bank accounts. Plaintiffs do not know the amount segregated or whether it will be sufficient to cover the outstanding balance on the Virginia Judgment.

1 6. During the parties' May 15, 2024 Early Neutral Evaluation before this
2 Court, we were advised that Defendants had stated that there was a hearing date set
3 for last week in the Virginia matter.

4 7. No hearing date as been set in that case. Defendants have not even filed
5 any moving papers in that matter. Additionally Defendants misrepresented to the 6 Virginia Court that: a) The settlement agreement was negotiated after the judgment 7 was entered when they knew the settlement agreement was entered before the 8 judgment was entered and merged into same and b) that Defendants had made all 9 payment and were current when they knew they, among other things, refused to 10 disclose they had sold a substantial amount of drones. Defendants have made ex parte
11 attempts to release the garnished funds and have attempted to pressure bank
12 employees into releasing the funds prematurely. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a 13 true and correct copy of an email exchange between Defendants' attorney, Jimmy 14 Robinson, and court personnel in the Virginia garnishment matter.

15 8. Defendants' recent financial disclosures appear to reveal a dire financial 16 situation. According to their Q1 disclosure, Defendants' net income has dramatically 17 declined, and their accumulated deficit has significantly increased. Specifically, as of 18 December 31, 2023, Defendants reported a net income of $325,570, which ballooned
19 to a staggering $4,496,850 loss by March 31, 2024. Additionally, their accumulated 20 deficit grew from $39,999,350 to $44,296,707 over the same period. Defendants have 21 publicly acknowledged their precarious financial condition by suggesting for the first 22 time that they might need to sell the company. A true and correct copy of Defendant
23 Cyberlux's most recent financial statement is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

24 9. I was also made aware that Defendants have approached at least one 25 company for the purposes of selling or merging Cyberlux.

26 10. Due to Defendants' financial instability, their attempts to sell the 27 company and their refusal to provide information about the number of drones sold,
28 Plaintiffs are highly concerned about Defendants rapidly diverting corporate assets

1 that could be used to satisfy the Virginia judgment. Despite numerous requests from 2 Plaintiffs for such information, Defendants have consistently ignored these requests.

4 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that 5 the foregoing is true and correct. This declaration was executed on May 20, 2024, at 6 Tappahannock, VA.

Ms. Thomas,

I am not available at all this week as I am out on a planned vacation

Thursday and Friday of this week. In addition, I have not received any motion from Mr. Robinson regarding any issue in this case and would need sufficient time to do research, respond, and bring witnesses if necessary.

Good morning Ms. Thomas-

Matter: Atlantic Wave v Cyberlux et. al – CL22-3882-00

Request: Does Judge McClenney have availability for an emergency hearing this afternoon or tomorrow morning?

My name is Jimmy Robinson – an attorney with Ogletree Deakins representing the Defendants, Cyberlux Corporation and Mark Schmidt in the above referenced matter.

- This matter has closed and a final judgment was entered back on June 28, 2023.
- After that judgment the parties entered into a settlement agreement and have been in compliance with that agreement.
- Surprisingly, there has been a notice of lien and writ of fari facies filed holding significant funds in Cyberlux’s accounts.
- Cyberlux’ position is that the notice and writ are improper and are asking for an emergency hearing to suspend the notice of lien and writ until the parties can be heard in full by Judge McClenney.
- My phone number is 804-306-7500. If Judge McClenney has availability, I will file a very quick motion that outlines the information in this email.

NOTE A-SUMMARY OF BUSINESS OPERATIONSBusiness Operations

Cyberlux Corporation (the “Company” or “Cyberlux”) was incorporated on May 17, 2000 under the laws of the State of Nevada. The Company had been focused on the development, manufacturing, and marketing of long-term portable lighting products for government, commercial and industrial users. Starting in July 2022, the Company began expanding its defense industry product offerings. While the Company has generated revenues from its sale of products, the Company has incurred sustained losses. Consequently, its operations have been subject to all risks inherent in the establishment of a new business enterprise.

During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company refocused its operations through the following transactions:

1. Cyberlux and Kreatx Shpk, FBD Shpk and Havas SAS (collectively the “Foreign Subsidiaries”) entered into Agreements of Business Separation, effective as of June 30, 2023, terminating the business relationship of between the parties, in exchange for certain payment and equity terms. The operations of these businesses for the period ended March 31, 2023 are presented as discontinued operations in the consolidated statement of operations. The Company recognized a loss on the disposition of these subsidiaries, as presented in the consolidated statement of operations. See Note M.
2. On August 29, 2023, Cyberlux Corporation was awarded a contract of $78.9 million to deliver Cyberlux K8 Unmanned Aircraft Systems as confirmed by the United States Department of Defense (“DoD”) in the February 24, 2023 USAI announcement. The Company is required to comply with DoD rules and regulations with respect to the fulfillment of such contract, and the DoD may amend, delay, or cancel the contract per the contractual terms. The Company received approximately $39 million in advance payments from the DoD upon signing of the contract during 2023. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company shipped approximately $15 million under such contract. As of December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024, the Company has remaining advance payments for the purchase of such systems from the DoD of approximately $23,145,000. The completion of shipment of the remaining Systems is subject to DoD acceptance of the product, including engineering and testing procedures, the timing of which is uncertain.
3. On September 16, 2023, the Company acquired 100% of the outstanding stock of Datron World Communications, Inc. (“Datron”), a provider of communications solutions to government, militaries, and industrial users globally. See Note E.

The accompanying statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As shown in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, as of March 31, 2024, the Company incurred accumulated losses of approximately $44,000,000. The Company’s current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately $20,000,000 as of March 31, 2024. The Company has undergone significant transformation in 2023 refocusing its business, disposing certain businesses, acquiring Datron Worldwide Communications, and receiving a significant sales order from the DoD. While these factors among others may indicate that the Company will be unable to continue as a going concern, management is confident that business performance in 2024 will ensure the Company is an ongoing growth business for the foreseeable future.

The Company is actively pursuing additional business growth through acquisitions, organic growth and new customers and products that are expected to increase the associated cash flow from operations. Obtaining additional financing to support the successful development of the Company's contemplated operations, and its transition ultimately to the attainment of profitable operations, are necessary for the Company to continue business. However, no assurance can be given that management's actions will result in profitable operations or the resolution of its liquidity problems. If the Company is unable to raise additional funds, it will need to do one or more of the following:

- Delay research and development projects;
- License third parties to develop and commercialize products or technologies that it would otherwise seek to develop and commercialize itself;
- Seek strategic alliances or business combinations;
- Attempt to sell the Company;
- Cease operations; or
- Declare bankruptcy.

The Company may continue to raise additional funding from its current investors. In addition, the Company will continue to seek funds through debt or equity financings, marketing and distribution arrangements and other collaborations, strategic alliances and licensing arrangements, or other sources of financing. However, there can be no assurances that such financing or other strategic transactions will be available on acceptable terms, or at all.

NOTE C- SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the significant accounting policies applied in the preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements follows:

Basis of presentation

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements contained herein have been prepared by the Company pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Accordingly, the condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all normal recurring adjustments, which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations and may not include all disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"). The information as of March 31, 2024 and December 31, 2023 is unaudited. The Company has presented the results of the Foreign Subsidiaries as a discontinued operation for all periods presented.

Principles of consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements and related notes to the consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Revenue recognition

The Company recognizes revenue under Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 606, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers" ("ASC 606"). The Company determines revenue recognition through the following steps:

- Step 1: Identify the contract with the customer;
- Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract;
- Step 3: Determine the transaction price;

- Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and
- Step 5: Recognize revenue when the company satisfies a performance obligation.

The Company records sales of its products and services to the commercial and U.S. government agencies and foreign nation ministries of defense when the products and services are billed against the associated contracts when performance obligations with customers are satisfied. The Company's performance obligation is a promise to transfer a distinct good to the customer and each distinct good represents a single performance obligation. Such performance obligations are satisfied at a point in time and revenues are recognized when all rights and rewards of ownership are transferred. The majority of the Company's products are shipped by common carrier resulting in recognition of revenues upon shipment at which time control passes to the customer. Revenue is measured at the amount of consideration the Company expects to receive in exchange for the transferring of products. Customers may be entitled to cash discounts, typically denoted at the time of invoicing and shipping. Such amounts are considered to be variable consideration under ASC 606. An estimate for cash discounts is included in the transaction price as a component of sales and is estimated based on the satisfaction of outstanding receivables and historical performance. The Company does not have any material financing terms as payment is received shortly after the transfer of control of the products to the customer within a period of 30-60 days.

Deferred revenue arises from amounts received in advance of the culmination of the earnings process and is recognized as revenue in future periods as performance obligations are satisfied. Deferred revenue expected to be recognized within the next twelve months is classified as a current liability.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity date of six months or less to be cash equivalents.

Foreign currency translation

The Company translates the foreign currency financial statements in accordance with the requirements of ASC 830, "Foreign Currency Matters." Assets and liabilities are translated at current exchange rates, and related revenue and expenses are translated at average exchange rates in effect during the period. Resulting translation adjustments are recorded as a separate component in stockholders' equity. Foreign currency translation gains and losses are included in the consolidated statement of operations, within general and administrative expenses.

Use of estimates

In preparing the Company's financial statements in conformity with GAAP, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Accounts receivable

Our policy is to provide an allowance when an account becomes greater than 90 days past due. An account is charged off when it is determined by management to be uncollectible.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market determined by the average cost method. The Company provides inventory allowances based on estimates of obsolete inventories. Inventories consist of finished products available for sale to distributors and customers as well as raw materials. The work in progress inventory primarily relates to the products being built for the DoD as noted in Note A2 above.

Components of inventories as of December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024 are as follows:

	December 2023	March 2024
Component parts	$ 3,935,012	$ 4,053,472
Work in progress	14,472,404	14,612,629
Finished goods	322,873	-
Less: allowance for obsolete inventory	(1,912,163)	(1,404,000)
	$ 16,818,126	$ 17,262,101

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. When retired or otherwise disposed, the related carrying value and accumulated depreciation are removed from the respective accounts and the net difference less any amount realized from disposition, is reflected in earnings. For financial statement purposes, property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Furniture and fixtures	7 years
Office equipment	3 to 5 years
Leasehold improvements	Lessor of 5 years of life of lease
Tooling	3 years
Manufacturing equipment	3 years

Advertising costs

The Company expenses all costs of marketing and advertising as incurred. Marketing and advertising costs totaled approximately $372,000 and $1,000 for the quarters ended March 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Research and Development

The Company accounts for research and development costs in accordance with the ASC 730 “Research and Development”. Under ASC 730, all research and development costs must be charged to expense as incurred. Accordingly, internal research and development costs are expensed as incurred. Third-party research and developments costs are expensed when the contracted work has been performed or as milestone results have been achieved. Company-sponsored research and development costs related to both present and future products are expensed in the period incurred. The Company expenditures were approximately $315,000 and $16,000 on research and product development for the quarters ended March 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Reclassification

Certain reclassifications have been made in prior year’s financial statements to conform to classifications used in the current year.

Fair Values

ASC 820 “Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures” (“ASC Topic 820”) defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and enhances fair value measurement disclosure. The Company considers its cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, and accounts payable to meet the definition of financial instruments, and the carrying amounts of such instruments approximated their fair values due to the short maturities of these instruments. The Company believes the fair value of notes payable approximate its amortized cost.

The Company measures fair value as required by the ASC Topic 820, which defines fair value, establishes a framework, and gives guidance regarding the methods used for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. ASC Topic 820 clarifies that fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants.

As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, there exists a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access as of the measurement date.

Level 2 - Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are directly observable for the asset or liability or indirectly observable through corroboration with observable market data.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability only used when there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability at the measurement date.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments and related items which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash, cash equivalents and trade receivables. The Company places its cash and temporary cash investments with credit quality institutions. At times, such investments may be more than the FDIC insurance limit. The Company periodically reviews its trade receivables in determining its allowance for doubtful accounts. At December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024, the Company did not have an allowance for doubtful receivables.

Segment reporting

The Company follows ASC 280 “Segment Reporting”. The Company operates as a single segment – industrial products.

Share-based compensation

The Company has granted common shares to employees, non-employee consultants and non-employee members of our Board of Directors. The Company has also granted Class B Preferred shares to an officer of the Company. The Company measures the compensation cost associated with all share-based payments based on the grant date fair values.

Income taxes

The Company follows ASC 740 “Income Taxes” for recording the provision for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are computed based upon the difference between the financial statement and income tax basis of assets and liabilities using the enacted marginal tax rate applicable when the related asset or liability is expected to be realized or settled. Deferred income tax expenses or benefits are based on the changes in the asset or liability during each period. If available evidence suggests that it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized, a valuation allowance is required to reduce the deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized. Future changes in such valuation allowance are included in the provision for deferred income taxes in the period of change. Deferred income taxes may arise from temporary differences resulting from income and expense items reported for financial accounting and tax purposes in different periods.

Valuation allowances are recognized to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that will more likely than not be realized. In assessing the need for a valuation allowance, management considers all available evidence for each jurisdiction including past operating results, estimates of future taxable income and the feasibility of ongoing tax planning strategies. When the Company changes its determination as to the amount of deferred tax assets that can be realized, the valuation allowance is adjusted with a corresponding impact to income tax expense in the period in which such determination is made. The Company has reserved its deferred tax assets in all periods presented.

The Company also accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with ASC Topic 740, which prescribes a more-likely-than-not threshold for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken in the Company's income tax returns. As of December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024, the Company had no uncertain tax positions which affected its financial position and its results of operations or its cash flows and will continue to evaluate for uncertain tax positions in the future. There are no interest costs or penalties provided for in the Company's consolidated financial statements for the periods ended December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024. If at any time the Company should record interest and penalties in connection with income taxes, the interest and the penalties will be expensed within the general and administrative expenses category in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations.

Intangible assets

Patents are amortized on a straight-line basis over an estimated useful life of 7 years. Technology related assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over an estimated useful life of 5 years.

The Company evaluates all long-lived assets for impairment. Long-lived assets are evaluated for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount is not fully recoverable, an impairment loss is recognized to reduce the carrying amount to fair value and is charged to expense in the period of impairment. As of December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024 management has determined that these assets are not impaired.

Comprehensive Income (Loss)

The Company follows ASC 220 "Comprehensive Income". ASC 220 establishes standards for the reporting and displaying of comprehensive income and its components. Comprehensive income is defined as the change in equity of a business during a period from transactions and other events and circumstances from non-owners' sources. It includes all changes in equity during a period except those resulting from investments by owners and distributions to owners. ASC 220 requires other comprehensive income (loss) to include foreign currency translation adjustments and unrealized gains and losses on available for sale securities.

Net income (loss) per share

Basic net income (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by the sum of the weighted average number of common shares outstanding, including common stock equivalents, during the period. For periods in which the Company reports a net loss, diluted net loss per share is the same as basic net loss per share.

For the quarter ended March 31, 2023, the number of shares excluded from diluted net loss per share included approximately 270 million shares of common shares which would be issued upon the conversion of notes payable and approximately 22 billion shares which would be issued upon the conversion of preferred stock based upon the conversion rates currently in effect – see Note H. The shares issuable upon conversion of notes payable and preferred stock are not included in the denominator since their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

For the quarter ended March 31, 2024, the number of shares excluded from diluted net loss per share included approximately 25 billion shares of common shares which would be issued upon the conversion of notes payable and approximately 22 billion shares which would be issued upon the conversion of preferred stock based upon the conversion rates currently in effect – see Note H. The shares issuable upon conversion of notes payable and preferred stock are not included in the denominator since their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

Acquisition of Datron

On September 16, 2023, the Company acquired 100% of the outstanding stock of Datron World Communications, Inc. (“Datron”), a provider of communications solutions to government, militaries, and industrial users globally. The purchase price consisted of the payment of $3.0 million at closing, issuance of a $2.0 million note payable (1st note), the issuance of a $2.0 million note payable (2nd note) and the cancellation of a $3.5 million advance previously made to Datron.

The 1st note payable bears interest at 3% per annum and is due September 2026. The holder can elect to convert the note into shares of common stock at 90% of the VWAP after September 2024.

The 2nd note payable bears interest at 5% per annum and is due September 2026. The holder can elect to convert the note into shares of common stock at 85% of the VWAP after September 2024.

The acquisition was accounted for as an acquisition of a business, and the purchase price of approximately $10.5 million was allocated to net operating assets of $0.1 million and the remaining $10.4 million was allocated to technology based intangible assets, which will be amortized over 5 years. The Company has not yet completed the purchase price allocation and valuation of the identifiable intangible assets as required by ASC 805, but expects to have it completed for the December 31, 2024 reporting period.

Datron had significant deferred tax assets as a result of net operating loss carryforwards and certain timing assets which exceeded the deferred tax liability which would have been record as a result of the basis difference in the intangible assets resulting from the acquisition. No net deferred tax assets or liabilities were recognized from the acquisition – See Note J.

Among other provisions of the Certificate of Designations of the Series B and C preferred stock, the Company is required to reserve a sufficient number of shares of common stock of the Company for the conversion of all shares of preferred stock. The Company is not currently observing this requirement.

Series A - Convertible Preferred stock

The Company has authorized 100,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, with a par value of $.001 per share. The Company filed a Certificate of Designation creating a Series A Convertible Preferred Stock classification for 200 shares. The Series A Preferred stated conversion price of $.10 per share was subject to certain anti-dilution provisions. The Series A Preferred Stock became converted into 6,745 shares of common stock pursuant to its terms, however such common shares had not yet been issued to the shareholders as of March 31, 2024. The Company has subsequently instructing the transfer agent to issue an aggregate of 6,745 common shares to the remaining record holders of Series A Preferred stock. This obligation is included in the liability for common stock to be issued on the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

Series B - Convertible Preferred stock

There are 100,000,000 shares of Series B Preferred authorized, and 90,300,000 shares of Series B Preferred issued and outstanding as of December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024. A Board of Directors resolution indicates that the conversion ratio is 200:1.

The holders of the Series B Preferred shall have the right to vote, separately as a single class, at a meeting of the holders of the Series B Preferred or by such holders' written consent or at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation on any of the following matters: (i) the creation, authorization, or issuance of any class or series of shares ranking on a parity with or senior to the Series B Preferred with respect to dividends or upon the liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Corporation, and (ii) any agreement or other corporate action which would adversely affect the powers, rights, or preferences of the holders of the Series B Preferred.

The holders of record of the Series B Preferred shall be entitled to receive cumulative dividends at the rate of twelve percent per annum (12%) on the face value ($1.00 per share) when, if and as declared by the Board of Directors, if ever. All dividends, when paid, shall be payable in cash, or at the option of the Company, in shares of the Company's common stock. Dividends on shares of Series B Preferred that have not been redeemed shall be payable quarterly in arrears, when, if and as declared by the Board of Directors, if ever, on a semi-annual basis. No dividend or distribution other than a dividend or distribution paid in common stock or in any other junior stock shall be declared or paid or set aside for payment on the common stock or on any other junior stock unless full cumulative dividends on all outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred shall have been declared and paid. These dividends are not recorded until declared by the Company. As of December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024, the liquidation preference of the Series B preferred stock is approximately $295 million and $298 million, respectively, including dividends in arrears.

Series C - Convertible Preferred stock

On November 13, 2006, the Company filed a Certificate of Designation creating a Series C Convertible Preferred Stock classification for 100,000 shares. This was subsequently amended on January 11, 2007 to allow the issuance of 150,000 shares.

The shares of the Series C Preferred are non-voting and convertible, at the option of the holder, into common shares after one year from issuance. The number of common shares to be issued per Series C share is calculated by dividing $25.20 by the 10 DMA (daily moving average), adjusted for the 200:1 reverse split effected in 2010. That formula computes as: $($25.20/10DMA)/200$. Neither of the Series C Preferred shareholders have exercised their conversion right and there are 150,000 shares of Series C Preferred shares issued and outstanding on December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024.

The holders of record of the Series C Preferred shall be entitled to receive cumulative dividends at the rate of five percent per annum (5%), compounded quarterly, on the face value ($25.00 per share) when, if and as declared by the Board of Directors, if ever. All dividends, when paid, shall be payable in cash, or at the option of the Company, in shares of the Company's common stock. Dividends on shares of the Series C Preferred that have not been redeemed shall be payable quarterly in arrears, when, if and as declared by the Board of Directors, if ever, at the time of conversion. These dividends are not recorded until declared by the Company. As of December 31, 2023, no dividends have been declared. As of December 31, 2023 and March 31, 2024, the liquidation preference of the Series C preferred stock is approximately $3.0 million, and $3.4 million, respectively, including dividends in arrears.

NOTE I - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company has borrowed money from related parties from time to time – See Note G.

NOTE J – LEASE

The Company leases facilities under operating leases with expiration dates at December 31, 2026 through April 30, 2027. Monthly rent is approximately $32,000 per month for such facilities.

Operating leases are presented in the Company's consolidated balance sheets as right-of-use assets from leases, current lease liabilities and long-term lease liabilities. The assets and liabilities from our leases are recognized at the lease commencement date based on the present value of remaining lease payments over the lease term using the Company's incremental borrowing rates. Short-term leases, which have an initial term of 12 months or less, are not recorded on the balance sheet. As the Company's operating leases do not provide implicit rates, the Company has utilized its incremental borrowing rate, determined based on the long-term borrowing costs of companies with similar credit profiles, to record its lease obligations. For operating leases, the Company recognizes the minimum rental expense on a straight-line basis based on the fixed components of a lease arrangement. The Company will amortize this expense over the term of the lease beginning with the lease commencement date.

The following table presents information about the amount and timing of liabilities arising from the Company's operating leases as of December 31, 2023:

Total undiscounted operating lease payments	$859,212
Less: Imputed interest	(66,502)
Present value of operating lease liabilities	$792,710
Weighted average remaining lease term in years	3.0
