COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST DISTRICT OF TEXAS AT HOUSTON

ORDER

Appellate case name: In re Cyberlux Corporation and Mark D. Schmidt
Appellate case number: 01-25-00455-CV
Trial court case number: 2024-48085
Trial court: 129th District Court of Harris County

Relators Cyberlux Corporation and Mark D. Schmidt filed a petition for writ of mandamus regarding the trial court's May 22, 2025 Order Appointing Receiver and June 12, 2025 oral denial of Relator's Emergency Motion to Stay or Otherwise Suspend Order Appointing Receiver.<sup>1</sup>

Relators have also filed a Motion for Expedited Appeal and Request for Emergency Temporary Stay ("Emergency Motion"), requesting we stay the May 22, 2025 Order because the subject judgment has allegedly been satisfied, Cyberlux Corporation is struggling to operate with the order in effect, and Mark D. Schmidt never should have been included in the order.

The Court requests Real Parties in Interest file a response to the Emergency Motion on or before noon on Monday June 30, 2025 and file a response to the petition for writ of mandamus on or before Monday July 21, 2025. At this time while the Emergency Motion is pending, nothing in this order should be construed as preventing the trial court from conducting further proceedings, including proceedings to determine whether the judgment has been satisfied and how monies should be disbursed.

It is so ORDERED.

Judge's signature: /s/ Andrew Johnson
Acting individually

Date: June 24, 2025

<sup>1</sup> Relators also filed an interlocutory appeal of the same order and denial, which we have docketed as Case Number 01-25-00454-CV.
