• On May 20, 2026 the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina dismissed all claims brought by James Curtin against Cyberlux Corporation, our special counsel Chuck Watts, his firm Watts Law PLC, and HII Mission Technologies Corporation. The 18-page Memorandum Opinion and Order, written by U.S. District Judge Thomas D. Schroeder, dismissed every cause of action, established on the federal record that Mr. Curtin is the author of the anonymous "Jackson Holt" online posts about our Company, and the court addressed Mr. Curtin's potential 'Rule 11(b) and Fabrication of Legal Authority' which was raised by the court sua sponte and found that "Curtin's brief contains fabricated quotations that directly contradict the actual holdings of the cases cited." The court concluded by warning Mr. Curtin that "any future filings containing fabricated legal authority may result in sanctions under Rule 11."
